Unless otherwise provided above, payment to two or more primary beneficiaries or two or more contingent beneficiaries shall be made in equal shares or to the survivors in equal shares or all to the last survivor. If there is no primary or contingent beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the amount of benefits payable because of the insured's death shall be payable to the assignee if living at the insured's death or to the assignee's estate if the assignee is not living at the insured's death.

It is understood and agreed that this designation will in no way apply in respect of any Survivor life insurance benefits if the Group Policy providing for such benefits makes no provision whatever for a beneficiary designation and that in such event the Survivor life insurance benefits will be payable only as provided in the Group Policy, this assignment notwithstanding.

SECTION 4: Instructions

- Do not erase or attempt to make corrections. Use a new form.
- MetLife must receive the form within 60 days of when the assignor/owner signs and dates it.
- This form only applies to coverages insured by MetLife.
- Gift assignments are not permitted as collateral security or for value.
- Unless and until the assignee designates a new beneficiary, any existing beneficiary designation on file at the time the assignment is made will remain on record and the life insurance proceeds will be paid accordingly upon receipt of a properly supported claim.
- The following definitions may be helpful in completing your assignment form.

Assignment:

Is the irrevocable transfer by an assignor/owner to an assignee of all right, title, interest and incidents of ownership, both present and future, relating to the assigned Group Life insurance coverage.

Assignor/Owners

An individual or entity who assigns all right, title, interest and incidents of ownership of an insured's Group Life insurance coverage. The assignor/owner is the owner of the coverage.

Assignee

The individual or entity to whom a transfer of all right, title, interest and incidents of ownership of an insured's Group Life insurance coverage is made.

The absolute assignment of a life insurance certificate has legal and tax implications. The assignor/ owner may want to consult with a personal legal or tax advisor. Neither MetLife nor its representatives or agents are permitted to give legal or tax advice. Any information included in or related to this form is for general informational purposes only and should not be considered legal or tax advice. You should consult with and rely on your own legal and tax advisors.
